Dear Steve:

Many thanks for your note of January 3
enclosing the excellent little book, "Korea's
New Energy."

I found it most interesting and well put together and I congratulate you and the Bechtel Corporation on your fine performance in this project.

With best wishes.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Mr. ~~Dulles~~: Allen! —

Your deep interest and wide responsibilities in the field of international affairs lead me to believe you would enjoy reading the enclosed little book, "Korea's New Energy".

It tells the story of the conceiving and building of three power houses in Korea, a joint endeavor of the Republic of Korea, the International Cooperation Administration and free enterprise in the form of an American engineering-construction organization.

We feel privileged to have had a share in what we consider an example of international cooperation in its finest and most effective form.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

S. D. BECHTEL
